AN AFTERNOON IN ANN ARBOR

The Detroit Swiss Society is hosting its 2012 "Afternoon in Ann Arbor" which will include a docent-led tour of the exhibit Face of Our Time at the University of Michigan's Museum of Art, followed by a light dinner at Mani Osteria & Bar.

EXHIBITIONS
UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN MUSEUM OF ART

FACE OF OUR TIME
THROUGH FEBRUARY 5, 2012

Face of Our Time examines more than 100 works by five photographers-Jacob Aue Sobol, Jim Goldberg, Zanele Muholi, Daniel Schwartz, and Richard Misrach-who operate within what Walker Evans referred to as the "documentary style." Sharing an interest in making pictures that capture what the world looks like, they observe the sometimes volatile civil and political transformations facing society and look reflectively at contemporary culture, recording history as it unfolds.

Swiss photographer, Daniel Schwartz was born in 1955, lives in Zurich and is an internationally acclaimed photographer who has worked for many years with the Swiss culture magazine DU.

Schwartz is the recent recipient of the culture prize of the canton of Zurich, for his photographic achievement of the past 30 years, for bringing seemingly detached realities in front of the eyes of a saturated Swiss and Western public.
